WEALTH OF THE QUEEN

It Is Estimated to Be Between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000.

HOW DISPOSED OF.

It Is Believed Princess Beatrice Will Be the Principal Benefactor. Nothing Left for King Edward or His Son.

Cowes, Jan. 25.—Queen Victoria's will was opened and examined Thursday by the duly constituted authorities. Nothing was made public as to the provisions of the instrument or amount of her private fortune. It is generally supposed this preliminary inspection was made in order to follow exactly her majesty's directions in regard to her funeral.

It was known the queen made a will early in her reign, which was repeatedly altered and added to as children and grandchildren were born, and as her estate rapidly advanced in value. This proceeded until 1896, when her majesty decided to have an entirely new document drawn and with great personal care this was accomplished.

Those in a position to make any sort of guess as to the provisions of the will, declare Princess Beatrice, widow of Prince Henry of Battenburg, to be the principal beneficiary. She is governor of the Isle of Wight, and probably will inherit the Osborne House and the whole estate surrounding it. Then the duke of Cornwall and his sons, who have been great favorites with Queen Victoria, will receive a large portion of the fortune. The duke probably will become the owner of the Balmoral and Scottish property. The grandchildren who are expected to receive the largest bequests are two children of Victoria's youngest son, former duke of Albany. The queen's second daughter, Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, who is not rich, it is expected she and her four children will be liberally provided for. Edward VII, who will be amply provided for by the country, and the duke of York, who will be duke of Cornwall and prince of Wales, probably will not be a sharer in the late queen's private fortune.

Estimates made by the best informed persons in the financial field fix the value of Queen Victoria's private estate at something between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000. Parliament upon her accession granted her $1,925,000 a year. That sum, it was estimated, would maintain the royal establishments and leave the sovereign $300,000 for pocket money or personal expenses. Since the death of Albert, the prince consort, it is asserted her majesty has saved $250,000 a year of that sum. This money, together with its increment, has been converted under the best advice that London financial center of the world could supply. Added to it and accumulating each year is the sum of $12,300,000, the private fortune of the prince consort, which was bequeathed to the queen. She was also the legatee of many admiring subjects, one of them bequeathing her $2,500,000.

Queen's Body Removed.

Cowes, Jan. 25.—The body of Queen Victoria has been removed to Chapel Arden, in the diningroom by a party of bluejackets. It has been definitely decided there will be no public lying in state. The remains of the queen will be taken to Portsmouth on board the royal yacht Alberta and remain on the boat Friday night, Feb. 1.

Accommodations Inadequate.

London, Jan. 25.—Such great numbers of royalty and representatives of foreign nations are coming to take part in the funeral ceremonies of the queen that the royal palaces will be quite inadequate to accommodate them and various hotels and great residences in London are being secured.

Queen Honored at Hong Kong.

Hong Kong, Jan. 25.—All warships in the port, including the United States warships Albany, Bennington and Luzon and German and Portuguese ships, joined in the salute of 81 minute guns in honor of the late Queen Victoria and the later fired the royal salute in celebration of the accession to the throne of King Edward VII.

King's Reply to the President.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The following is the text of the reply which the president has received from King Edward VII in answer to a message of condolence on the death of the queen:

"Osborne, Jan. 24.—President, White House, Washington: Am most grateful for your kind sympathy in the irreparable loss which the nation and I have sustained. I felt convinced that it would be shared by you and the American people."

Marriage of Wilhelmina.

The Hague, Jan. 25.—An official of the ministry of justice has delivered at the townhall the formal deed signed by Queen Wilhelmina and Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, declaring their desire to be united in matrimony. Flags were at once hoisted on townhall and churches and other buildings. The royal ban will be read for the first time next Sunday.

Death His Penalty.

Brownwood, Tex., Jan. 25.—The jury in the Pearl murder case brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree and assessed the penalty of death.

ATTACK ON BRISTOW.

Six Hundred Creeks Threaten to Destroy the Town.

PEOPLE ARE UNEASY.

Marshal Bennett Will Send Deputies to Protect the Place—Fears Are Entertained for Appraisers in Wetumpka District.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 25.—The Creek uprising continues dangerous.

United States Marshal Bennett has captured the 17-year-old son of Chief Snake and has notified the latter that the boy will be held as hostage until the Indians surrendered. The Indians have so far refused to surrender and today held two councils, one near Bristow and one at Rush Hill, I. T.

A dispatch from Bristow states the threatened attack on that town has not yet begun, but the citizens continue to arm themselves and are preparing for an emergency.

Marshal Bennett express fear of bloodshed if the troops ordered from Fort Reno do not arrive soon.

Marshal Bennett has returned from Eufaula after a visit with five deputies to the home of Chief Snake. When he first entered Snake's house but three people were there. In less than 20 minutes 50 light horsemen of the Snake band gathered. They were all heavily armed but offered no harm to the officers. The Indians had been picketed about evidently to protect the chief or give warning of an attack. Snake could not be found and Bennett left word for him to come to Muskogee or Eufaula for a conference.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 25.—The Creek uprising is growing in dangerous proportions.

Marshal Bennett has just received a telegram from Bristow, I. T., announcing that 600 armed Creeks stationed two miles from there are preparing to attack the town and pleading for protection.

Marshal Bennett and Agent Schoenfeldt are swearing in large numbers of deputies, whom they are forwarding to the scene of trouble. It is now feared that they will reach town too late, and the mayor of Bristow has been instructed to swear in all the men necessary to protect the town.

Soldiers are being hurried from Fort Reno to the seat of trouble, but they will not reach Bristow before tonight, as they will arrive at Henrietta first and go overland. Indian Agent Schoenfeldt will ask for more help and it is found that one company cannot handle the situation for the Indians are divided into bands of 100.

The Snake band is within three miles of Bristow and is reported to have whipped two white men.

The Dawes commission fears for the safety of their party of appraisers, headed by Representative Hackbush of Leavenworth, Kas., in the Wetumpka district. Nothing has been heard from them in two days.

CHOCTAWS JOINING.

They Are Siding With the Snakes in Opposition to Allotment.

South McAlester, I. T., Jan. 25.—The reports of a Choctaw uprising are fully confirmed. Scouts sent out from this city report that the disaffected Choctaws have a number of the Creek Snakes among them and they have been quietly organizing and arming for some time. They call themselves the Choctaw Snakes. They comprise all those Indians who are opposed to allotment and the conflict is between them and the treaty Indians.

While noncitizens are not in danger, it is stated that the Snakes have planned to destroy all the railroads in their nation by burning bridges and section houses on a preconcerted night.

They have deposed Governor Dukes and issued an order to all citizens to cease leasing or renting to whites. The first offense they will punish with 50 lashes; they say ears will be cut off for the second offense and death for the third. They have organized and have leaders in every Choctaw county and claim to have a membership of 2600.

United States Marshal Grady has sent the leaders word that arrests will follow the first violation of the law,

Journal Notes.

To have a perfect stomach a man or a woman must dine well, and breakfast and sup simply.

No sensible girl dreads a single life. Old maids, as a phrase, has dropped from the common vocabulary. The spinster has her honored place in the community, and is as useful, as happy and as comfortably situated as her married sister.

Love your children and they will love you in spite of all your shortcomings; keep faith with them and they will keep faith with you; treat them courteously and they will be courteous; maintain high ideals and they will follow them; make them the centre of your life and they will make you the centre of their lives.

If ever there was a time when we needed to think of what we have without money, it is now.
We think so much about money.
We talk so much about money.
We say we can do nothing without money. That is not so. We can be saints without money; we can have peace of conscience, peace with God, joy in God; we can have Heaven without money.—

Rescued a Blind Horse.

A blind horse wandered into the mill pond at Mountain Grove, and getting beyond his depth, swam around in a circle trying to find a way out. His distress attracted a horse which belonged to postmaster Charles Z. Hanover to the water's edge, which tried to direct the blind horse to the shore by neighing repeatedly. Failing in this he plunged into the water of Back Creek, swam out to the unfortunate animal, seized its foretop and towed the quadruped to the terra firma, amid the cheers of upward of one hundred persons who had become spectators. The circus people have made Mr. Hanover some fabulous offers for his horse, but he refuses to sell.—Independent

HAWAIIAN ADVICES.

Puerto Ricans Mutiny on Account of Food—Harbor Filling With Mud.

Honolulu, Jan. 17, via Victoria, B. C., Jan 25.—A mutiny of Puerto Ricans on board an island steamer about to take them to one of the Hawaiian islands, started Honolulu Wednesday night of this week. The vessel was stopped just as she was leaving Honolulu harbor by the action of the emigrants, one of whom drew a knife on the master of the vessel, Captain Olsen. It is stated that the cause of the trouble was the failure to feed the emigrants. The Puerto Ricans say that all the food on the day of their arrival in Honolulu and up to the time of their departure for Hawaii at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, was a bun for each. When they were all put aboard the island steamer which was the International company's packet Ke Au Hon, they found that the cook had no meal prepared. On the vessel were 128 of the 398 who came here on the City of Pekin. It was a matter of some time for the cook to prepare food for such a number, hence the row.

The Ke Au Hon suddenly dropped her anchor in the harbor a few minutes after she had left the City of Pekin and signalled for the police. Deputy Sheriff Illingsworth and several officers went out to the vessel and restored order. Captain Olsen wanted the man who had drawn the knife arrested and taken ashore but the others threatened a general revolt if this was done and the man with the knife was allowed to remain on board. A search was made for the knife but it could not be found.
Two policemen remained aboard the vessel and she proceeded to her destination.

During the row the emigrants who were destined to various plantations became so much mixed that there was fear of more trouble in sorting them out. They had all been given tags bearing their name and number and name of the plantation to which they were to go. In their anger over the food and threatened arrest for one of their number many of them tore their tags off their clothes and threw them away.

Four hundred more negroes from the United States also arrived on the Pekin.
Some vigorous local objections are beginning to be heard to the importation of negro labor, as it is feared that some of the criminal experiences of the southern states may be repeated here if negroes are brought in large numbers. A row of this sort has already been reported from Wailuku, Maui, where pistols are said to have been drawn during a difficulty over some women. Particulars have not yet reached Honolulu.

First circuit court Judge Humphreys is ready to resign from the bench as soon as the present vacancies are filled.
He says his private practice will not allow him to serve longer in view of his present financial circumstances.

The United States army transports arriving lately with heavy cargoes found that Honolulu harbor has been filling in and Captain Slaker, quartermaster in charge here, says some dredging will have to be done very soon. The big transports frequently touch bottom now in taking their berths, though as the bottom is filled in with soft mud, no injury is done. The tides and currents are supposed to have caused this filling in.

A very rare coin was found last Tuesday by excavators who were working on a foundation for a building in the heart of the city. It is one of the first minted half dollars of 1853 and is said to be a coin of great interest to collectors.
The finder was offered $400 for the coin.

The schooner Twilight which arrived here in distress from the South Sea islands is ready to proceed on her run to San Francisco. United States Judge Estee, who made an order that certain repairs must be made on her, has given an order releasing her as the work has been done.

E. C. Green, who is said to be a deserter from the navy transport at Solace, was fined $100 in the police court here for heedless driving, on account of an accident by which a native woman named Mrs. Makaena, is said to have lost her life. On Dec. 18, Green was driving in a cart which collided with a brake in which the woman was riding and her ankle was broken by the overturning of the brake.

The army transport Thyra arrived here on the 14th on her way to Manila without having lost any of her horses or mules between here and the coast.
She continued on the journey on the 19th.

Shot While Being Arrested.

Kemp, Tex., Jan. 25.—John English of Dallas was shot and killed about two miles west of Tolosa Wednesday night.
Jim Hunter was arrested. English traveled through the country selling drugs and medicines. Hunter had sworn out an affidavit charging English with an attempt to assault his wife and went with the sheriff to search for English.
He was found at the place named, and while the sheriff was reading the warrant English was shot. The body of English was shipped to Dallas.

Wed Her Husband's Son.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 25.—William Graddy, an Adair county farmer, married his stepmother. One year ago his father was killed by a mule, and the handsome widow set the time for her second marriage on this date on that account. The wedding was a swell country affair.

Kruger's Eyes Progressing Well.

Utrecht, Jan. 25.—Kruger's eyes operated upon Thursday are progressing favorably.

FRESH TROUBLE IN CHINA.

Germany Throws Negotiations Back to Three Months Ago.

Pekin, Jan. 25.—Germany has put the screws on England, with the result that negotiations have retrograded to where they were three months ago. The demand for the death penalty will be preferred against all the leaders mentioned in the decree, in addition to the degradation of such anti-foreign leaders as have not committed suicide.

Mr. Conger stated at the meeting that he could not support the demand if it should be made in writing, but verbally he would do so with heart and soul.
This is the situation now and will continue to be for some months unless the American plan for change of venue finds acceptance.

Tung Fu Siang, whose head is asked for, possesses as the ministers well know, more real power and controls more troops than any man in China.
Moreover, the emperor is in his custody; yet he is expected, with his scribes and eunuchs to overpower the Kansu army and behead its general.

Count von Waldersee is making ostentatious preparations to leave, but evacuation is not near.

Possibly the demand will be refused by the Chinese. Certainly they cannot comply with it.

The peace and tranquility of the country are further away than ever.

FAVOR SPOONER BILL.

Federal Party in the Philippines Want the Bill to Become Law.

Manila, Jan. 25.—The executive committee of the Federal party has filed a petition requesting the Philippine commission to urge upon President Mc-Kinley that the passage of the Spooner bill by congress is an urgent necessity, as progress of the archipelago demands authority which can legislate and control corporation of concerns, regulate mining claims, dispose of public lands and perform other functions not vested in either military or legislative authorities.

The petitioners state the time is ripe for a general civil government, the establishment of which will win over those favoring insurrection, while at the same time it will encourage the natives to subscribe in favor of a settled government in the Philippines under American sovereignty.

Members of the commission while desiring that the full quota of troops continue here, will recommend the passage of the Spooner bill.

Secretary Root has advised the commission to inform inquirers that ports in the southern islands will not be closed.

An Actress' Costly Hat.

New Orleans, Jan. 25.—Ashea Waba, an actress, attended the matinee at the Crescent theater Thursday and did not remove her hat. Theater Officer Astor told her it was against the law to wear headgear in a New Orleans theater. She declined to remove her hat, was finally arrested and Judge Hughes fined her $15 or 15 days in the police jail. This is the first arrest that has grown out of the enforcement of the high hat law.

To Investigate Bubonic Plague.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 25.—Prof.
Frederick G. Novey of the University of Michigan, left Wednesday night on the important mission for the United States. He goes in all possible haste to California to investigate the likelihood of bubonic plague or black death breaking out there and if such be the case to institute every repressive measure that is known to medical science.

Wreck Near Big Springs.

Big Springs, Tex., Jan. 25.—Eastbound freight train No. 92 of the Texas and Pacific collided with westbound train No. 91 at Metz, 80 miles west of here, just as No. 91 was entering the siding having orders to meet at that place. The engine of 92 crashed into the cars of 91 about the middle, badly wrecking the engine and overturning several cars. The fireman was killed.

Shooting at Dallas.

Dallas, Jan. 25.—John Sanders, a white man, was shot with a double-barreled shotgun in the face and had two of his fingers blown off his left hand in a saloon while talking over the telephone at 12:20 o'clock this afternoon.
Louis Weaver gave himself up to the sheriff. Weaver claims that Sanders threatened his life. Sanders is badly wounded.

War Tax Not Removed.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The report that the senate committee in its amendments removed the tax from cosmetics, perfumeries, chewing gum and sparkling wines from the revenue bill is erroneous. The committee reduced the tax on some medical preparations and removed it from others, but left it on the articles mentioned in the existing law.

No Objection to Missionaries.

Pekin, Jan. 25.—Prince Ching has assured a committee of missionaries that there is no intention or desire on the

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering.
Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless.
It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle of the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 26, 1899.
After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught.
I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.

MAJOR JOHN W. TABOR DEAD.

LIFE'S LABORS ENDED. HE LIES DOWN TO PEACEFUL SLEEP.

STRONG CHARACTER AND USEFUL LIFE

As Citizen, Soldier, Business Man and Public Official He was True to Every Trust and Responsibility.

There is mourning of Bryan for another of her aged and most honored citizens. As briefly mentioned in the Eagle yesterday morning, Major J. W. Tabor died at his home Thursday, January 24, at 5 o'clock p. m., at the advanced age of 78 years, 2 months and 8 days. His home stands high upon the crest of a hill north of the city, and for nearly forty years he has been a familiar figure in the community, a man of high character and marked influence in business and public affairs.

Major John Washington Tabor was born in Bibb county, Ala., Nov. 16, 1822, the son of Judge Nathan Tabor and Maria Henry Tabor, and the grandson of Lieutenant Wm. Tabor Sr., a prominent figure in the Revolutionary war who took part in the famous battles of Cowpens, Camden, King's Mountain, etc. Major Tabor was a born Southerner in character and in sentiment, his family tree extending from Virginia to the Carolinas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas. When eight years old he moved with his father's family from Alabama to Winston county, Miss., where on July 25, 1844, he was married to Miss Martha Jane Anderson. They resided in Mississippi until 1859, when they came to Texas and settled in Caldwell county, near Lockhart. While residing at Lockhart in 1862, Major Tabor, as captain, raised a company of volunteers for service in the Confederate army. His company was incorporated in the Seventeenth Texas regiment, of which, at its organization, he was elected major. The regiment formed a part of Walker's division. Major Tabor was a member of Camp J. B. Robertson, U. C. V., of Bryan, and for a number of years commander of the camp.

Major Tabor moved with his family from Lockhart to Bryan in 1866, and settled at the home where he resided continuously until his death. He engaged in merchandising at Bryan and Millican, and the active years of his life were occupied with this pursuit. He was public spirited and foremost in movements for the betterment and upbuilding of the town and county. A man of unusual force of character, determination and energy, he was a power in every sphere of life with which he had to do—a type of splendid manhood. He served the city as alderman and subsequently as mayor for a number of years, and his public services were in keeping with the high standards of his life and character. He and his good wife, who survives him, united with the Baptist church in 1861, and took part in the organization of the First Baptist church of Bryan. He became a Mason many years ago, and was a member of the W. T. Austin Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, of Bryan.

Major and Mrs. Tabor celebrated their golden wedding July 25, 1894, six years and a half ago, with a large gathering of children, grand children and relatives from other points in Texas and from other states, at the family home in Bryan.

Ten children were born to Major and Mrs. Tabor, five of whom are living, Alderman R. G. Tabor, Mr. O. L. Tabor, Dr. Geo. R. Tabor and Miss Mattie Tabor of Bryan, and Capt. John Q. Tabor of San Antonio. His sons are influential and successful business and professional men. Of the five deceased two died in early infancy. The others were Wm. H. Tabor, Mrs. W. H. Lovell and Jefferson W. Tabor.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. F. M. Law at the family home yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Many beautiful floral tributes had been placed upon the casket by loving hands, and many gathered for a last look at the firm, familiar face upon which the lines of suffering were no longer visible, but in their stead an expression of perfect repose. The remains were interred with Masonic honors at the city cemetery by the members of Brazos Union Lodge No. 129, A. F. and A. M., in the presence of a vast assemblage gathered to honor his memory. The members of Camp J. B. Robertson were present with their colors draped, and the business houses of the city remained closed during the funeral hour. The sympathy of all is extended to the family in their great bereavement.

Dr. A. B. Ingram of Corsicana arrived yesterday afternoon, and will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday and Sunday night. Dr. Ingram has been pastor at Corsicana for a number of years, where he is very popular. He is one of the strongest men of the Baptist church in the state, is a pleasing speaker, and should have a good audience.

A movement is on foot to organize a Bryan Driving Club. The promoters propose to organize a stock company and secure a charter. The plan is a good one and doubtless will meet with liberal approval. There are already a number of good horses in Bryan and vicinity and a driving club would speedily add to the number. It would also prove a stimulus to the good roads movement and serve as a nucleus for organizing a county fair association.

Mr. S. D. O'Neal of Chalk Mountain, Erath County, is back to Bryan visiting friends and attending to some business.

Recovery.

"Do you think you will be able to recover from the depression of defeat?" "Oh, yes!" answered the ex-candidate cheerily. "I have already recovered several thousand dollars by means of magazine articles and the like."—Washington Star.

The Real Thing.

"Do you think he is all real?" "Why, of course. A girl with her means would never buy any other kind."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Dustman.

The dustman came by a cart by day And carries the bins on his back, But at night he goes in a hood of gray And a mantle of misty black.
Slow, slow, you may hear him go,
Dust of dreams in your eyes to throw,
With a soft little-bell, whose sleepy chime Tinkles drowsily all the time.
"Ding-a-ding!"

In the dusty street, in the dewy grass, He solemnly steps on his way,
But you never, never can see him pass,
For he keeps in the shadows gray.
Slow, slow, you can hear him go,
Dust of dreams in your eyes to throw,
And his wheels are hushed, and his horses pace Very softly from place to place.
"Ding-a-ding!"

He calls to the dear little sleepy heads:
"It's getting exceedingly late!
You must creep up stairs to your wee white beds; Did you know it was half past eight?"
Slow, slow, you will hear him go,
Dust of dreams in your eyes to throw;
When he mounts the stair, when he opens the door, Sleeping sound, you will hear once more—
"Ding-a-ding!"
